Selection Commission and the same is under process.

The SPOs will be selected through an interview by a board comprising the district superintendent of police (SP) as chairperson and one deputy superintendent of police (DSP) of the district concerned who will be nominated by the SP concerned.

The SPOs will be eligible for ex gratia compensation in case of death/disability/injury while performing the duties. In case of death, an ex gratia amount of Rs 10 lakh will be given, and in case of permanent disability, the compensation will vary from Rs 1 to Rs 3 lakh and in case of grave injury, an amount up to Rs 1 lakh will be given. However, in case of natural death, the ex gratia amount of Rs 3 lakh will be admissible to the family of deceased employees (SPOs).

The minimum educational qualification for the recruitment would be 10+2 from a recognised board for all categories. The selected SPOs will not be posted in their home police stations but they could be appointed, as far as possible, in police stations near their place of residence.

After the selection, the SPOs will undergo a 15 days' capsule course. The spokesperson said adequate representation will be given to members of the Scheduled Castes and Backward Classes. Also, the engaged SPOs will have the powers, privileges and immunities applicable to other police constables.

Other decisions

Haryana Cabinet accorded approval to the proposal regarding the renewal of a block guarantee for Rs 1,000 crore for the flotation of debentures/loans raised by the Haryana State Cooperative Agriculture and Rural Development Bank Ltd.

The Cabinet gave a nod to frame transport department Haryana (group-A) service rules, 2022. These rules will be applicable for the recruitment of additional transport commissioner, joint transport commissioner, district transport officer-cum-secretary, RTA, deputy transport commissioner, deputy transport commissioner (technical) and deputy transport commissioner (IT).

The Cabinet also accorded approval to a proposal regarding amendment in Government Employees' Conduct Rules, 2016-Rule 24 and to yet another proposal regarding the framing of Service Rules of Group-A and B posts of Haryana State Information Commission.
